Re: Texas Association of College and University Police Administrators Conference

The Texas Association of College and University Police Administrators (TACUPA) are proud to present our 51st annual conference in Irving, Texas May 31st, 2015 through June 3rd, 2015. We would like to welcome you to our conference as a sponsor and active supporter of our organization.

This conference is an excellent opportunity to showcase your products to administrators in the security and police related fields. You will have direct contact with individuals who are responsible for command decisions and who have direct control over budgetary decisions.

The conference will feature generous incentives for active participation in the sponsor areas. Refreshments will be served in the sponsor area encouraging walk-through traffic. Ample time will be allotted throughout the conference for face to face meetings with the participants. Free advertising in the conference materials will be provided. A list with all the registered participants contact information will be provided to your representative. Complementary lunch for one representative with the participants will be provided for additional face to face meetings. Short presentations in front of the group are also available.

TACUPA is an organization that has been around since 1964. Our mission is for the discovery, preservation, and transmission of knowledge through teaching, research, and public service. Within this purpose, the Association recognizes an obligation of service to the people and needs of the Colleges and Universities within the State of Texas. TACUPA is committed to enhancing the quality of the educational experience. With your participation in this conference, our mission will be closer to achieving our goals. More can be learned of our organization by going to our web site <http://www.tacupa.org>

I personally would like to thank you for considering attending this conference. If you have any question, please don't hesitate to call.
